IPD Weekly Report (25-31 May 1983)

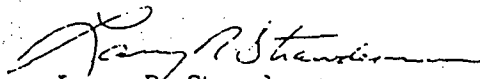

c. Thomas Conrad of the American Friends Service Committee asks for copies of seven finished intelligence studies including a National Intelligence Estimate titled "Dealing With Mexico in the 1980s" (9 September 1980).

d. Another biographer, Professor Philip Ross of Cornell University, requests all material in our files on Paul Hall, the former president of the Seafarers International Union.

e. Robert Lenzner of The Economist requests extensive information concerning J. Paul Getty, including Getty's dealings with Hitler, Goering, Goebbels, and several other people, his connection with several oil companies, his proposed oil sales to Germany during World War II, and his negotiations for oil concessions.

4. Spotlighted Responses

* { John Martin of ABC News, who had asked the number of requests for documents on Klaus Barbie received during the years 1977 and 1978, was told that we had received one such request during those years. We also told him that the file had been destroyed in accordance with our records control schedule; we sent him the 13 pages of previously released material on Barbie.
